

Jeff Moyle - Senior Reviewer - Canberra

Jeff Moyle had a highly successful Commonwealth APS career spanning 37 years – 17 of which were at the SES Band 1 and 2 level leading Branches and Divisions in Canberra and Sydney. Jeff has successfully led corporate HR functions, a large state office and had national responsibility for Divisions undertaking national security-related investigations, operations and analysis.

For the past 12 months Jeff has been a consultant in the field of public administration - with a focus on integrity, governance and organisational matters of high sensitivity. He can undertake complex inquiries into code of conduct allegations involving senior executives and has extensive experience reviewing systemic, process and organisation wide issues.

Jeff has an extensive background in investigation, analysis and security. He has worked extensively with Federal, State and Territory law enforcement and policy agencies at a bilateral and multi-lateral level, including through Counter Terrorism coordination structures such as the Australia New Zealand Counter Terrorism Committee and with key private sector groups in critical infrastructure. He has also had substantial experience working closely with legal representatives and law enforcement agencies on major investigations, prosecutions and AAT-related litigation.

Jeff has also had significant international experience. He had two overseas postings, including at a senior level in the US, with achievements in developing and expanding relationships with international partners in SE Asia, Middle East, US and Europe. Jeff has also had substantial experience providing senior level representation, conference presentations, training presentations and community engagement in Australia and overseas.

In 2017/18 Jeff was engaged to provide professional advice to a UK Government review, support to a number of legal reviews and undertook a review of an investigative branch for an APS agency.

Jeff has a Bachelor of Arts (Social Sciences) from Flinders University of South Australia, majoring in Asian Studies and in 2011 undertook the Harvard-Kennedy School of Government (Boston) program in National and International Security.

Jeff has a current Top Secret (PV) security clearance.
